

LUXURY, PRIVACY AND IMPECCABLE SERVICE AT EXCLUSIVE DOWNTOWN LOCATION

A photograph of the entrance to Hotel Townhouse 27 at night. The entrance features two large glass doors flanking a central concrete pillar. The pillar has the hotel's logo and name engraved on it. The interior is warmly lit, and the entrance is flanked by potted plants. A white circular overlay with text is positioned in the upper center of the image.

BETON HALA (BARS & RESTAURANTS)

In the neighborhood of Savamala, near the city harbor, on the Sava river. Nowadays intensively used for tourism, hospitality and commercial purpose and represents a must visit "hotspot" in Belgrade.

SAVAMALA (CLUBBING)

One of the oldest parts of Belgrade, the first to be built outside the walls of Belgrade Fortress and the first that most visitors encounter as it is located next to the train and bus station, Savamala was also once the center of the city.

BELGRADE

greatest hits

KALEMEGDAN FORTRESS

The Fortress was built in stages, during the lengthy period between the 1st and 18th century, from a Roman castrum, through a Byzantine castle and the remains of the medieval capital of the Serb Despotate.

THE ETNOGRAPHIC MUSEUM

Founded in 1901, this museum studies folk life and exhibits various ethnographic objects, including some earthenware and metal vessels, jewellery, amulets, glass and textile items, weapons, tools, Easter eggs.

DORČOL (BARS & RESTAURANTS)

The very "heart" of Belgrade. The name comes from Turkish words for "crossroads". Famous for the largest numbers of bars, restaurants, pubs and places to go out.

KNEZ MIHAILOVA (SHOPPING)

Pedestrian zone and commercial center, one of the oldest and most important monumental urban environments. It is composed of representative buildings and houses constructed at the end of the 1870s.

SKADARLIJA (BARS & RESTAURANTS)

The old, bohemian quarter of Belgrade, arose during the late 19th century when its inns were the gathering and residing place of many famous writers, actors, painters and journalists who once lived in Skadarlija.

THE NATIONAL THEATRE

Located in the immediate vicinity of the National Museum. It was built during 1868 and 1869. It was the place where the Great Constitutional Assembly voted the famous 1888 Constitution.

REPUBLIC SQUARE (CENTRAL CITY POINT)

The existing square was formed along the construction of the National Theatre building in 1869. When the monument to Prince Mihailo was erected in 1882, the gradual urban shaping of the square began.

THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY

The cornerstone was laid in 1907, but the construction lasted until 1936. The National Assembly House has exceptional historic and architectural value as well as its extensive collection of works of art.

ZELENI VENAC (GREENMARKET)

One of the largest open markets, in the center of Belgrade, opened in 1924. It is built in the area that was previously part of the trench which surrounded the Kalemegdan fortress in the 18th century.
